OBITUARIES

Lidia ‘Lillie’ Arrellano Martinez

Lidia “Lillie” Arellano Martinez, 96, of Superior, passed away Feb. 4, 2018. She was born in Springer, NM to Candido and Ramona Arellano. She was their 7th born of 9 children.

She arrived in Superior in 1936. She graduated from Superior High in 1940. She worked as a cashier at Azteca Grocery Store and at her parents’ restaurant, El Popular. She met our Dad, Alfonso F. Martinez at a Magma Club dance. They were married in 1944 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Superior. They were married for 67 years. They had 4 children, Lydia Ramona Gomez, Alfonso A. Martinez, Theresa M. Hopkins and Mary Ann Bernal; four grandchildren, Fortino M. and Anthony Rae Gomez, Briana Jessica Thornton and Michelle Noel Henderson; and two great-grandchildren, Addison and Jaxon Thornton. Lidia is survived by her sister, Odelia “Babe” Arellano.

Lidia loved cooking; she made the best green corn and red tamales, tortillas, green chili burros, and tacos! There was always food in abundance at Mom’s.

Christmas was very special for Mom, a beautiful Christmas tree with a special nativity scene, many presents and lots of food for everyone. She loved to have her family, “the loves of her life,” surrounding her. Lidia’s other love was praying the rosary daily and serving her church, St. Francis. She started teaching religious education classes in 1968. She taught for over 35 years. One of her proudest moments was having Marcos as a student and being honored to attend his celebration in becoming a Priest. In 1994 she was selected as the Grand Marshal of The Fiesta Patrias Parade! Lidia was given a long and blessed life. She enjoyed and loved her family, cooking and devoting her life to Christ. “In this life we cannot do great things. We can only do small things with great love” -Mother Teresa- Superior Funeral Home is providing exceptional family service. 379 Ray Rd., Superior, AZ 85173. Ph. (520) 689-2692. SuperiorFuneral.com.

Prepare now to help prevent a wildland fire like the one that threatened Dudleyville last year.

Southeastern Arizona experiences prolonged dry and windy conditions; BLM reminds public to prevent wildland fire/protect property

TUCSON, Ariz. – The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) is reminding Southeastern Arizona to take steps to prevent wildland fires and to protect their properties in light of prolonged dry and windy conditions. These conditions have resulted in extremely dry grass and vegetation that is now very receptive to the one spark that can start a wildfire.

“Nationally, nine out of 10 wildland fires are human caused through debris burning, equipment sparks, campfires, and other means,” shared Gila District Manager Scott Feldhausen. “All it takes is one spark to start a wildfire. We encourage people who are going to use public land during hot/windy days to refrain from activities that could potentially start a fire.”

Now is the time to take actions that reduce the risk to home and property from wildland fire. Information on how best to mitigate your risk can be found at Firewise USA™ www.firewise.org. Firewise USA™ recognition program teaches people how to adapt to living with wildfire and encourages neighbors to work together and take action now to prevent losses.

“The 2017 fire season was very active; and if the dry, windy conditions continue, 2018 could be very busy,” said Feldhausen. “In 2017, fire mitigation activities paid off, saving numerous homes and structures, including homes and the historic structures on the Empire Ranch during the Sawmill Fire.”

The BLM Gila District supports the efforts of individuals and communities, in collaboration with multiple agency and local partners, by helping home and business owners assess and take action to protect their properties from wildland fire.

People are encouraged to contact their local fire department, county, state or federal land management agency for technical advice or to request a fire risk assessment.
