OBITUARIES

Dr. Michael Miles

Dr. Michael Miles, 70, passed away on May 16, 2020, in Oracle, of a heart attack. He is survived by Molly Miles, Judy Grace, Joe Miles and John Miles.

Michael served his country, receiving an honorable discharge from the Navy. He earned a degree as a Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine from the highly regarded Bastyr University and Medical School in Seattle. He also earned a Bachelor’s degree in psychology.

He practiced for many years as a Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine at the Swan Clinic for Natural Healing in Tucson. In 2014, founded the Catalina Clinic for Integrative Medicine. Michael held a special interest in intravenous chelation therapy used in the treatment of cardiovascular disease. He was also very active in cancer research. He was compassionate, sincere, and a strong advocate for an individual’s health who focused on treating chronic and degenerative diseases, digestive disorders, and hormonal imbalances, as well as allergies and infections of all kinds. He preferred non-toxic treatment techniques that include botanical medicine, clinical nutrition, and homeopathy.

Michael loved flying in the skies, sailing the seas, biking on the open road or hiking in nature’s wonderland. He was a renaissance man who loved breathing new life into anything vintage much as he did for the human body through his naturopathic medicine. He preferred the challenge of reinvigorating over discarding.

Services are tentatively scheduled for July 15 and will be announced when more information is available. Visit forevermissed.com for more information and to leave a special note or photo.

Editor’s note: For the past several years, Dr. Miles has been an occasional writer for the San Manuel Miner. His column, Health Issues, explored a variety of subjects that were interesting for our readers. We will miss his words of wisdom. ~jrc

Virginia Mae (Plageman) Clark

Virginia Mae (Plageman) Clark, 80, passed away May 21, 2020 at Transitions Care Facility in Tuscon AZ. She was born Dec. 5, 1940 to Evelyn (Thompson) and Chester Plageman in St. Peter, MN, Nicolett County.

She married and, while going through a divorce, accepted a job in 1971 in Church’s Ferry, ND with Wayne Clark’s shorthorn steer farm. They married in 1972, welcoming their first son in 1973. They lost a son at birth between then and 1977, when they welcomed their youngest into their lives. There was always a special place in her heart for their nearest neighbors on the next farm, Bill and Elaine Godman.

Known to most as Ginny, this tiny woman was always feisty and ready to take on a challenge, no matter the odds. She raised both of her sons on her own after he passed, eventually moving to San Manuel, AZ to be closer to her family – most of them within walking distance of each other.

Her faith was a large part of her life and her church family in Oracle, AZ provided support, camaraderie, and comfort through both the good and the difficult times. She found joy in painting, gifting many oil paintings of animals to family. She collected Painted Ponies, enjoyed gardening, and loved her dogs.

Ginny was preceded in death by her husband Wayne, brother Tom, son Michael, and her parents, along with numerous dogs she had loved throughout her life including Shadow and Duchess.

She is survived by sons, Norman (Denise) Clark of Mandan, ND, and Terry (Karlene) Clark of East Grand Forks, MN; grandsons, Wayne and Joseph; brothers, Donald (Barbara) Plageman of Montana and Robert Plageman of Arizona; and sister, Beverly Dollard of Tennessee, along with many nieces and nephews about whom she always spoke highly.

Her remains will be brought “home” to Cando, ND where she will find rest at the side of her beloved husband once more. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, her sons will not be holding a funeral, but instead doing a personal graveside visit with their immediate families only.

As Ginny loved her dogs so much, her sons are asking that in lieu of cards or flowers, that a donation be made to your nearest animal shelter on her behalf.

Oracle Farmers Market is opening!

Oracle Market is opening. With it will come the fun, local characters and good eats that folks, near and far, have come to expect.

Austin Owens will be on the stage sharing his love and talent. He is a local singer, songwriter and musician extraordinaire who also teaches guitar and is helping his students reach their musical goals.

Cowgirl Chef Tammy Newell will be serving up Thai meatballs with an Asian slaw in lettuce wraps with a sweet sauce at the sweet price of three wraps for $10, or, if you are not a meat eater, two wraps for $5. For dessert, Dirty Sno will be offering ice cream and her crazy snow cone concoctions.

Various vendors will promote potions and lotions, handmade arts and crafts and unique gifts for the whole family, including beautiful jewelry, hats, purses, flip flops, handmade leather items, and other accessories. The Lavender Shop will also be open, so take a peek and see what they are up to!

To have the best Oracle Farmers Market experience while practicing your personal social distancing, feel free to wear your masks. Bring your appetite, a positive attitude and lots of cash for goods and tips for musicians. A shopping bag to hold your goodies, mosquito repellent, a jacket for when the sun goes down and a flashlight to get you safely back to your car, so you can stay late and soak in maximum fun are also good ideas.

Sue and Jerry stated, “Speaking of your car, leave your politics there! Also if you bring your pet, please know you are responsible to remove their waste immediately off our property. “

Following all these suggestions will help all who visit to have a very good time, every Wednesday night that the party that is the Oracle Farmers Market is open in beautiful downtown Oracle. So, come out and enjoy a peaceful night under the stars with friends and locals.

Curry and Hill take top two spots for Class of 2020

This year’s graduating class of 2020 has faced a year like no other in the history of San Manuel High School. The traditional school year ended and everyone found new ways to adjust and try to keep the school spirit going.

For the first time, San Manuel’s graduation will be held mid-summer despite the fact that classes ended the week of May 18. Graduation has been scheduled for June 26 at 7 p.m. at the football field. It is unknown how social distancing will affect the graduates and seating for their families.

One thing that won’t change will be the speeches – one of the highlights of the commencement ceremony. This year two young ladies will take center stage and offer their words of wisdom for their classmates.

Araceli Curry and BaiLee Hill have been named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, for their class.

Araceli Alicia Huerta Curry is the daughter of Francisco and Ramona Curry and the granddaughter of Refugio and Elvira Huerta and Carmen Curry. She has four siblings, Cameron, Francisco, Mireya, and Vicente Curry.

Araceli has been heavily involved in sports during her high school career. She’s participated in cross country, basketball, track and cheer. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council, Interact and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She plans on attending the University of Arizona in the fall. She has not yet declared a major, but sees herself choosing nursing after the first semester.

“In this next phase of life,” Araceli told the Miner, “I look forward to finding what I really love and

"I see myself having a successful career in the medical field, giving back to our changing world," she said.

BaiLee Paige Hill is the daughter of Bill and Franky Hill. Her siblings are Hunter, Billy and Kevin Hill.

BaiLee is a swimmer. She swam all four years of high school, lettering all four years and serving as captain in her senior year. She is a member of student council, National Honor Society, A.P. Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Interact Club (vice president). She also served as class secretary for the past two years. BaiLee will be attending the University of Arizona in the fall and will be pursuing a degree in elementary education.

"I am looking forward to experiencing everything about college," BaiLee said, adding, "I am also looking forward to studying something I am interested in and starting my future."

Looking ahead 10 years, BaiLee said she sees herself living on her own, possibly married and "having a teaching job somewhere around here."

COVID-19 changed their end of year plans. Araceli sees her classmates making an impact on their changing world, serving and helping others.

"I see myself and my graduating class taking the things we love and applying them to our future careers. I believe this is important because I know that will create passion for our careers, whether some of us choose to become doctors, lawyers, journalists, entrepreneurs, go into the military, etc.," she said.

BaiLee believes the pandemic has been an eye-opener for her and her classmates.

"Since we are living through a pandemic, we have learned to appreciate every moment and not take things for granted," she said. "This will help us to be grateful for what we have."

"Doing the things we love is what will make a difference and impact on our changing world," Araceli added.

about high school,” Araceli said. “On the most stressful days basketball was always something that helped, something I could pour passion into, not to mention my amazing teammates and coaches!”

For BaiLee it will be swimming, but she said she’ll also miss her teachers, choir and “sign language with Mrs. Miles.”

There are also things they WON’T miss about high school.

“I will not mis A.P. Calculus online,” BaiLee said. “Although I have learned a lot, it is something I will not miss.”

“I will not miss having to eat lunch so early on in the day,” Araceli said, adding, “something about a full meal at 10:30 in the morning just doesn’t sit right with me.”

Both girls have a vision for their community. Ten years from now, BaiLee hopes Oracle is still a small town. “I don’t want the urban areas to make its way here. I love my little town of Oracle and I plan to live here in the future.”

Araceli wants to see more resources and opportunities for the youth. “Helping our youth, and showing them that they can do anything they set their minds to will make me want to return to my community during my adulthood,” she said. “Giving back to your people is one of the most important things I believe in.”

The future is bright for these two graduates and their experiences with COVID-19 has taught them flexibility, patience and understanding – all critical skills for navigating lives challenges.

Editor’s note: Copper Area News - San Manuel Miner congratulates Araceli and BaiLee and their families for this top academic accomplishment. Due to COVID-19 interviews were conducted remotely via email written replies.

Public Notice

Arizona Water Company (the “Company”) has released its 2019 Water Quality Report (Consumer Confidence Report) for its Oracle water system, PWSID 11-019. The Company will not be mailing a copy of the report to its customers, because Arizona Administrative Code R18-4-117, granted a mailing waiver to small water systems with a population less than 10,000 people. Copies are now available: at the Oracle office located at 470 E. American Avenue; via mail by sending a request to Arizona Water Company, P. O. Box 5209, Oracle, AZ 85623; via our website at www.azwater.com; or by calling the Oracle office at 520-385-2226. The entire report is also printed in the newspaper today. The Company recommends that customers serving more than one housing unit post a copy of the 2019 Water Quality Report in a conspicuous place.

The following report provides detailed information about the quality of the water delivered to customers. The water supplied by Arizona Water Company complies with all state and federal safe drinking water standards and regulations.

Public Notice

Your drinking water complies with the United States Environmental Protection Agency’s (“USEPA”) safe drinking water standard for arsenic, though it contains low levels of arsenic. USEPA’s safe drinking water standard balances the current understanding of arsenic’s possible health effects against the costs of removing arsenic from drinking water. USEPA continues to research the health effects of low levels of arsenic, which is a mineral known to cause cancer in humans at high concentrations and is linked to other health effects such as skin damage and circulatory problems.

Note: In addition to the constituents listed in this report, Arizona Water Company and ADEQ conducted monitoring for over 90 additional constituents and the results show none of those constituents were detected in the water. Data presented are from the most recent testing done in accordance with applicable regulations. Some constituents are monitored less frequently than once a year because either their concentrations do not change frequently or they are not likely to be detected. Therefore, some of the water quality testing data contained herein, although representative, may be more than one year old. If you have questions about this water quality report, please contact Regina Lynde, Environmental Compliance Manager, Arizona Water Company, P. O. Box 29006, Phoenix, Arizona 85038-9006; telephone (602) 240-6860 or email mail@azwater.com.

In 2003, ADEQ completed a Source Water Assessment of the water sources used by Arizona Water Company’s Oracle water system. ADEQ reviewed the adjacent land uses that may pose a potential risk to the water sources. The result of the Assessment was a low risk to the water sources.

The complete Assessment is available for inspection at ADEQ, 1110 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85007, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Electronic copies are available from ADEQ at recordscenter@azdeg.gov. For more information, visit ADEQ’s Source Water Assessment and Protection Unit website at: www.azdeg.gov/environ/water/dw/swap.html.

Public Notice

The USEPA and ADEQ require Arizona Water Company to provide the following information:

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some constituents. The presence of constituents does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about constituents and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the USEPA’s Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Some people may be more vulnerable to constituents in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. USEPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial constituents are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radiological material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Constituents that may be present in source water include:

- Microbials, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.
- Inorganics, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.
- Organics, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are byproducts of industrial processes and petroleum production. They can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.
- Radiological material, which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, USEPA prescribes regulations which limit the amount of certain constituents in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for constituents in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public health.

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Arizona Water Company is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the USEPA’s Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/lead>.

MCLG = Maximum Contaminant Level Goal, the level of a constituent in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
MRDL = Maximum Residual Disinfection Level, the highest level of a drinking water disinfectant that is allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.
MRDLG = Maximum Residual Disinfection Level Goal, the level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial constituents.

Wildfire Safety

Much of the southwest is considered a high-hazard fire environment. Within this hazardous environment are individual homes, and entire communities ill-prepared to survive an intense wildfire. It is not a question of "if" a wildfire will occur, but when. The odds of losing human life and property are growing. The Town of Kearny would like to protect you and the community from the dangers of wildfires. The Fire Chief is very concerned about this upcoming fire season. Even though we have received more rain than usual, it has caused more weeds. Once the rain stops, the weeds will dry out and this will make for a dangerous fire season. Please clear weeds, dry grass, dry shrubs or dead trees surrounding your property. Thank you for your support.

Memorial Day tribute to a Pinal County Vietnam War hero

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Monday, May 25, was celebrated as Memorial Day: the day to remember those men and women that gave their lives in America's wars. Small town Americans have always answered the call to fight for their country whether they enlisted or were drafted. This was true during the Vietnam War. Pinal County made up of many small towns had at least 37 men killed in Vietnam. Not all of those soldiers were American citizens, but believed in America enough to sacrifice their life for their adopted country. Immigrants have fought and died for this country since the Revolutionary War.

One such immigrant was José Francisco Jimenez. José was born in Mexico City, Mexico on March 20, 1946. His early years were spent in Morelia, Michoacán, Mexico. In 1957, after his father's death, he joined his mother, Mrs. Basilia Jimenez, in Red Rock, Arizona. He graduated from Red Rock Elementary School in 1964 and attended Santa Cruz Valley Union High School in Eloy. In High School he was active in the Future Farmers of America and was the FFA President his senior year. He also worked as a cowboy at La Osa Ranch near Red Rock. José graduated from high school in June 1968 and enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in August.

Following basic training and advanced infantry training, José was ordered to the Republic of South Vietnam in February 1969. Prior to leaving for Vietnam, he returned to Red Rock to visit his family. They traveled to Mexico City and his hometown of Morelia. While in Mexico City, he visited the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe to pray to the Virgin. In Vietnam he was assigned as a guide and fire team leader with Company K, 3rd Battalion, 7th Marines, 1st Marine Division. He was promoted to Lance Corporal on June 16, 1969.

On Aug. 28, 1969, in Quang Nam Province, south of Danang, José's unit came under heavy fire by North Vietnamese soldiers concealed in well camouflaged emplacements. Lance Corporal Jimenez acted quickly and shouting encouragement to his fellow marines, took the initiative attacking the emplaced enemy. During his actions, he knocked out a heavy machine gun emplacement then attacked a trench where enemy soldiers were laying down fire on his unit, killing five North Vietnamese. As he rushed towards another emplacement, he was fatally shot in the head. For his actions that day he was nominated for the Congressional Medal of Honor.

His mother had his remains sent to Morelia, Mexico where he was buried. On Aug. 6, 1970, José was posthumously awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor at a ceremony in Washington D.C. President Richard Nixon presented the medal to Jose's mother who attended the presentation along with her nephew J. Natividad Acosta and Jose's sister Maria del Pilar. Arizona Senators Paul Fannin and Barry Goldwater also attended the ceremony as well as the Mexican Consul who acted as translator for Jose's mother.

Jose's cousin, Natividad, told the press that Jose volunteered because he felt he owed a debt to this country. "He didn't have to join the Marines or fight for the United States," Natividad said. "He could have gone back to Mexico, but he said he owed this country a great obligation for the way he and his mother had been received and helped here. I think that is why he volunteered and died in Vietnam. This was not his country, but he owed it a debt and he paid it."

Note: In 2017, at the request of his sister and with the help of his fellow Marines and others who raised funds and helped make arrangements, José Francisco Jimenez was buried with full military honors next to his mother's grave in Glendale, Arizona.
